“ Oh, I am so sorry to hear about George. He was my neighbor when we bought this house in 1996 and he was a sweetheart. My deepest sympathy goes out to his family, and I'm sorry it took so long for me to say this.

“ George was a terrific workmate at Deere - always there to help with no judgement. Just terrific. George went on to organize and lead our monthly gathering of retirees. In summer months a fairly large number gathered to share memories & current happenings. Sadly Covid interrupted these breakfasts. George, we will miss you more than you know.

One day George showed up at our house with some Clay Frogs. Products of the Rockford Brick & Tile. It was fun to discuss the tile works, the frogs, and much more.
