“ His son Barry was my closest friend. As a teenager I remember playing guitars with George. My family still remembers one New Years Eve at my parents house when George and I played for hours. You always new that when the guitars came out everyone was in for a treat. Rest in peace old friend, you will never be forgotten.

“ Eastman Family: My deepest sympathy to all of George's Family and to all his friends. George had a never ending love for his family. I had the pleasure of knowing George & Pat, along with their children and grandchildren, when Pat owned the restaurant. We played Karaoke their for several months and George would bring his guitar in and play along with us. That was totally awesome. I was honored to have George, as my friend, since he always had a smile on his face and the jokes he told and his humor was something to look forward to. He came out to my Dad's and got a lot of plumbing stuff and it was a pleasure to talk with him. His band was awesome and now I wish that I would have gotten his record, because I know that I would have really enjoyed it. I really regret that he had Alzheimer's Disease, since that just lingers on for too long. Now George is at peace and no more pain, but we will miss him terribly. I sure hope that I can run into Pat at a garage sale. God Bless
