“ Please accept our sincere condolences. May the words quoted from this song bring you a measure of comfort as it did for us.
"If a man or woman should die, can they live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand "(Job 14:13-15)

“ To my great Friend of 25 years. It was my privileged to be a close Friend to George for these years, and to hear his many stories of his life. It was my joy to lead George to Salvation in 1993, in New Hartford, IA. In his latter time he taught much about the time of illness. He was not one to complain but to praise God for the time to tell others of God's GRACE for him. George said it was his joy to tell other of the Love of God for everyone and His salvation for those that would accept Jesus' death on the cross. I will miss George for only a little while, when we shall meet again in Heaven. Until then George
