

Gretrude Huffman

Gertrude was born February 4, 1924, in New Hartford, Iowa, the daughter of Harm B. and Meggie Jessie (Evers) Wildebuer. She married Wendell Huffman. He preceded her in death. She was head cook at Country View Care Center in Waterloo, retiring in 1987.

Gertrude is survived by two daughters, Barbara (Jimmie) South of Jonesboro, AR and Jessie (Randy) Beck of Cedar Falls; three sons, Wendall (Janet) Huffman Jr. of Minneapolis, MN, Richard (Jodi) Huffman of Rockford, IL and Darrell (Sue) Huffman of Cedar Falls; sixteen grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren; two brothers, Lester Wildebour of Independence and Harley Wildebuer of Shell Rock; and four sisters, Genny Weber of Cranford, NJ, Shirley Patmore of Waterloo, Betty Schwantzes of Cedar Falls and Esther Boss of Waterloo.

Gertrude died Monday, June 30, 2003, at Regional Medical Center in Jonesboro, AK. She was preceded in death her parents; two brothers, Bennie and Johnny Wildebour; sister, Evelyn Wildebuer and granddaughter, Tracey Huffman.