“ Hank was a dear friend and a fellow firefighter. I was honored to work for him and learn from him. He always drove his convertible Miata for my Senate campaign during the Sturgis Falls parade. A loyal and good man, through thick and thin. Rest in peace Hank. You will be missed. Jeff Danielson

Elizabeth and I always enjoyed seeing Hank at church. An endearing quality of the church was a time of joys and concerns. If the Hawkeyes had won Hank would declare it a joy and if they lost a concern. Sadly, now Hank and that practice at church are both gone. And the world seems grayer for it...
