“ I was so surprised to see your father's obituary in the paper. I knew him from Happy Chef, where I occasionally ate. He was such a pleasant fellow. I really enjoyed chatting with him whenever I went there. I will remember him each and every time I go into Happy Chef. Your father was such a "caring" person, asking each time how I was and how I've been. I drove school bus for Waterloo, several years ago, and just last March went back to driving for another school district. He always asked "how are your kids" and would laugh and ask if I've gone back to driving for Waterloo, knowing my answer would be "NOT in a thousand years!"
My sympathies to the family. You all really had a good DAD.
