

Herman Woolhiser

January 19, 1917 - September 2, 2010

Herman H. Woolhiser (1917-2010)

CEDAR FALLS- Herman H. Woolhiser, 93, of Cedar Falls died Thursday, September 2, 2010 at his home.

He was born January 19, 1917 in Jackson Township, Iowa, the son of Joseph Howard and Jessie Freemont Kittybelle ( Briley) Woolhiser. He married Marjorie Wilson on February 28, 1937 in Boone County, Iowa.

He graduated from Boone County School, and attended classes at Iowa State University. He farmed and was employed as an engineer with Allis Chalmers, and later John Deere.

Survived by: his wife, Marjorie of Cedar Falls; two sons, Phil (Mary) Woolhiser of Aiken, SC, and Dave Woolhiser of Arkansas; a daughter, Kathy (Ken) Bradfield of Cedar Falls; twelve grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

Preceded by: three sisters, Agatha Holland, Lois Bergland, and Gertrude Kokomiller; and one brother, Clarence Woolhiser.

Private family memorial services will be held at a later date. He deeded his body to the University of Iowa Deeded Body Program.

Tribute Wall

“ Your father was such a kind and gentle person, and he will be missed by everyone who knew him! I am so very sorry for your loss.

---

John Larsen - January 14, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ I was saddened to hear of your Father passing. My sincere condolences to your family, my prayers are with you at this difficult time. May God give you Peace and sustain you through this. May your memories comfort you. I will always remember your Dad, he always had a smile and a kind word. Love, Kathy Olmstead

---

September 09, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire Woolhiser Family. You will never forget and the hurt never goes away but the loving memories live on forever in our hearts. God Bless all of you and may God help you through this time. Love, Cindy and Family

---

September 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ My sincere condolences to all the family on your very sad loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time

---

September 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM