“ Nancy & Lisa--My parents Peg & Jerry Smith lived in #3 at Windgrace. My dad passed away a week before your dad did. I was at Windgrace for several days several times. Your mom was such a beautiful vibrant person. She had a beautiful way and so warm and kind. I know you will miss her a lot. My sympathies are with you and your families. Remember all those wonderful times you had with them.

“ Ileen & I shared many fond memories when we were classmates at St. Mary's. We went to a reunion together once, too. Her husband was always so friendly when he was at bank. He shared much about the family when they were growing up. Over the years we became "tired" and didn't communicate, but I would catch a glimpsom when at Sartori or one of their many Cedar Falls activities. My sincere sympathy---Olga Ileen has many friends, at St. Mary's and elsewhere. I will try to alert them. The Sister of St. Francis in Rochester always remember her.

“ Dear Nancy and Jeff, Lisa and kids, I am SO sorry for your loss. I used to love hearing the Phil and Ilene stories! What special people they both were and how MUCH they loved you. They just don't make them like that anymore. Great examples of life lived well. I'm praying for comfort. Love, Denise

“ I will never forget your mom's smile.. when I would come to help her get ready in the morning, she was always alert and wanted to know how I was, what it was doing outside, and then later in the day I would come and check on her and it was always, "So what are your plans when you leave?" She always thought of others before her self, she was a very special person and I will miss her terribly.

“ Lisa, Nancy, and Family: We send our sincere condolences to all of you, and keep you in our thoughts & prayers. I had the privilege of working with your father at Midway Bank, including serving as his secretary for several years. He knew everyone and everyone loved him. I remember when your mother would help hostess the bank's annual Wassail Day each December - what a warm, lovely, gracious lady! Just delightful! You may not recall that your parents graciously agreed to serve as host & hostess at our daughter Jennifer's wedding in 1993. They were wonderful - Lucky us!! Both your parents served the community, Sartori Hospital, and everyone around them with dignity, honor, and their love... a legacy that will last forever. Cherish your memories. Peace be with you all.
