“ Inge and Arne welcomed us into their homes and hearts when we were college students and a young married couple. I even "roomed" with Marcy for a couple of weeks in 1970, at the end of my college semester. Their hospitality, and warmth were a model to us of a strong, faithful marriage. My parents loved having them visit in Minnesota in the early 1970s.

“ Inger and Arne were wonderful people. They made us welcome in their home as college students and young marrieds. They were a shining example to us of the love of Jesus.

“ Arne and Inger welcomed me into their home and family when I moved to Cedar Falls to work at First Baptist Church. They were gracious, fun-loving, kind friends who radiated the love of Jesus and made the world a more gentle and loving place. Their memories will live in my heart forever. I pray for peace and healing from sorrow for family and friends, and yet, I find myself singing "When we all get to Heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be!"

“ I can't think of a single time Inger wasn't smiling or showing compassion or kindness to someone. I remember being welcomed into her home for youth group activities many years ago. SO sorry for your loss, even as I trust she is in awe of her heavenly Father's face now and all the pain is forgotten. May our Lord Jesus hold you and support you.
