April 28, 1940 - March 8, 2023

Ivadean M. Herter, 82, of Parkersburg, died Wednesday, March 8, 2023, at UnityPoint Allen Hospital in Waterloo.

On July 6, 1963, she was united in marriage to Richard Arthur “Dick” Herter in Hawkeye, IA. He preceded her in death on January 9, 2018.

Ivadean was an educator all her life, most recently as a resource teacher at the Mesquaki Settlement School and Hudson before retiring. Ivadean enjoyed playing games like dominoes, pegs and jokers, and was a competitive opponent in cribbage. She was an avid quilter, making many valor quilts for our service men and women. She enjoyed fishing and catching northern pike at Lake Pokegama, geocaching, and had traveled to Alaska, Germany and many national parks out West. Most of all she enjoyed spending time with family, especially Christmas when it was a tradition for her to make her lasagna. She was also known as “Grandma Cinnamon Roll” because of the awesome cinnamon rolls she made.

“ Back in the day, I attended Randalia high school with Ivadean. She was always positive and very determined girl. On the basketball court we "Randalia Ramettes" never broke any records, but we sure had fun. I'm not surprised that she put together such a productive, fulfilling life. Way to go Ivadean!! “ I had not heard this until this morning. I am so so sorry for your loss. Ivadean was a kind, exceptional great person and a dear friend. She was such and support for me to my recent surgery and more importantly, after losing my husband. Oh, I just can't believe this. With loving thoughts of Ivadean, Sharon Hemmen

“ On Wednesday March 8th, 2023, Ivadean Herter heard her Savior say "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into thy rest". Our only regret is that we did not know her longer, we first met Ivadean and Richard while we were fishing in Northern Minnesota, and within a short time it was like we had known them all of our lives, and grew to appreciate her friendship more than I can tell you. Her infectious laugh always brought a smile to your lips, and a warm spot in your heart. I can truly say that I can't think of a time she did not have a smile. To all who knew her she was a woman of great convictions, she loved her God, her husband, her children and grandchildren as well as her great grandchildren, her friends and her country.

Did I mention that she was competitive and not just on occasion. She was competitive when she fished, she had to catch more than you did, and the fish needed to be bigger than yours. Yes, they needed to be measured just to make sure. She loved to play cards, or pegs and jokers. She was a gracious loser, which didn't happen often, she was also a gracious winner, but did like to make sure you knew that you had been had. But she was always fun, and whether you won or lost, you just enjoyed her company.

In the last few years, she had more than a few hospital stays, but you never heard her complain, she was always positive and upbeat, you were never aware that she wasn't feeling good. We will miss her greatly, but we are sure that we will see her again in glory.

“ We always loved when Ivadean was in adult Bible Class at Ascension. She had such a great Bible knowledge and was not shy about sharing it. I admired her quilting projects, the greatest being the quilt of valor project that honored every veteran in our church. She always reminded me it took many hands taking part, but I know her leadership helped guide the project. I'm happy Ivadean finally got to go home and join Dick and other loved ones who have passed. She left a great legacy. Well done good and faithful servant!!

“ We are so sad to hear that Ivadean passed away. We are very thankful for her life lived to glorify Jesus. She was never hesitant to speak of matters of faith, and she demonstrated her love for Christ in her teaching, her quilting, her appreciation of others and her commitment to study the Word. May God comfort all her family and friends in this time of loss.

John Tucker so sorry to hear this. Talked to her a month ago and she invited me to stop by if I was in Parkersburg. We didn't set a date so you know what didn't happen. Donna and I have a lot of fund memories of time spent with Ivadean and Dick, couples Bible study, fishing in MN, cards and Dominoes to name a few. Missing old friends. Pray for comfort for family.

Ivy, was a dedicated educator, kind woman, and passionate about her family. I worked with Ivy when she taught middle school in Hudson and loved every minute spent with her. She cared deeply for her students and held them to high standards.

From what others have shared, she lived a full life and enjoyed every minute of it.

Blessings as you remember your mother, grandma and great grandma!
