“ Hi Dana, Jaci and Katie, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I worked with Dana at Sartori 40 some years ago and she counseled me during my divorce. You were such a blessing to me. Jaci was my and my husband's hairdresser for several years and Katie and Zach go to the same church as I do. Once again, I pray for your comfort.

“ I recently lost my mother on June 12, 2012. While home last week for her belated memorial (the day after Thanksgiving), I had the opportunity to reconnect with Jill, whom I went to high school. Jill reached out to me and assisted me in a time of need. I learned during a brief get-together that her father had died. My love, peace and deepest condolences to the Ainsworth family.

“ Jill, I can only imagine the feeling of loss you and your family must be feeling right now. It sounds like your Dad was well liked and thought of by all around him. And, to be a member of the "McDonalds Morning Crew". I've always enjoyed seeing those guys laugh and greet each other, solving all the problems of the day with a wink or nudge and always a hearty laugh. Hopefully you will find solace and peace in memories of him like that. My Mom always told me to "rejoice at her death... Because she was going somewhere better..." But, thats hard to see at first through the tears. Positive thoughts and prayers are yours. Dennis
