“ Our family has lost a dear sweet lady. I have known Jackie most of my life, beginning when our favorite, and only cousin 'Garry Furlong' brought her to Des Moines for a visit. We have a small family, compared to many, but she fit right in and very shortly became one of us. When the children were young we shared family events together. My boys, Jeffrey and Paul, still talk about their three girl cousins - Chris, Stefanie and Michelle.

Jackie always had a deep love of family, be it Garry, her children or her extended family. In addition, she had a strong faith that would sustain her during her entire life.

In our later years I found Jackie to have a keen sense of humor. We spoke on the phone and during these conversations we always laughed like young girls.

I hope the family can find comfort and peace during this difficult journey. May the sweet memories become absolute treasures in your hearts!! Remember, we will all meet again one day.

Blessings and love of all, Jodell Keyes Stout

“ Dear Cousin Garry, Chris, Stefanie and Michelle:
I was just heart to hear the news. Jackie is still that adorable young lady that Garry first brought to Grandma and Grandpa Blatt's to meet the family for the first time. Such a beautiful "girlfriend," we all thought, not only the the outside but the inside too. So precious to be around, so precious for our much-adored "Cousin Garry!" "Oh, my," the older generation in our family twittered, "she's so young, they'll never make it." Boy, did Gary and Jackie fool them! I was a teenager when they got married and thought Jackie was the most beautiful bride ever, even better than Jackie Kennedy. I remember how hard they worked to save for their first house and their first real estate agent learned the lesson about not judging a book by its cover: Never forget to be kind to someone, even if you don't realize they can pay cash. We were so thrilled when Chris, Stefanie and Michelle came along but I'm not sure how thrilled mom and dad were that the tradition was for the brides' parents to pay for the weddings, which even got to Aunt Wilma dancing! What wonderful memories, Garry, of the lake together as kids and of Jackie coming into your life. Great times too in "Seedy Falls," even if we were so poor at first, we still had family. Love to Jackie--and to you, Garry, and to the "Furlong Girls!"

“ Most of my favorite childhood memories are family celebrations spent together- birthdays, Christmas and more. The cousins would bring a huge garbage bag of Barbie’s and we would take over the basement. One of my most cherished memories and favorite Christmas Eve is the time Uncle Garry had a flat tire. It was late and a holiday - we might have even had a snow storm!! Everyone stayed the night that Xmas Eve. The parents played Tripoli (or so I remember) and the cousins played Barbie’s and stayed up late. Holding that Christmas close in my heart today (and always). Love and miss you Aunt Jackie xoxox. And I love and miss my entire Furlong family. Xoxox

“ Sending tons of love to all... So many memories of Aunt Jackie and all the teasing she gave me as a kid! Especially always tricking me into telling her what we were going to give her for Christmas (I fell for it every time). She also had me believing that she and Uncle Garry could float on a magic blanket when they were dating! I will miss her sense of humor!

“ I can remember visiting Iowa and staying with Aunt Jackie and my cousins and there happened to be a tornado warning so we ended up in the basement. Coming from San Diego, it was both scary and fun. She did so much to make sure we weren't too traumatized. She was always so very nice and loving to everyone and will be missed dearly.
