“ We are very sorry to learn of Jim's passing, and equally regret we were in Arizona and unable to attend the visitation. Alan new Jim from East High and was so happy to reconnect with him years later in the farming operation. Our sincere sympathy to all of Jim's family.

“ Jim and I met when we were trombonists at East Junior High School. I lost track of him after high school and was sad to read of his passing. I had heard he was living in the Des Moines area and often thought I should look him up but as we humans often do I never made the effort. I'm sorry I didn't. I remember him sitting in the trombone section and will plan to dedicate the next concert I play in the Iowa Military Veterans Band to our friendship many years ago. Warren Erickson

“ i met jim more years ago than i care to admit. when i was an intern at a design firm in des moines. i can not lie, at first he scared the crap out of me. big, gruff guy with a pretty good bark. but he was always there to help me no matter what i needed. as i look back over my career, this is the man that taught me the most. he was my mentor whether he wanted to be or not. jim, you will be missed by so many. thank you for being there for me all those years.
