“ Please accept our sincere condolences. May the words quoted from this song bring you a measure of comfort as it did for us.
"If a man or woman should die, can they live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand "(Job 14:13-15)

“ My condolences to all of the Jane's children for your loss. I have many fond memories of Jane from living across the road from her. I should have visited more often but other conflicts made it difficult to do so. With all my love I say, I'm sorry.

I was sad to in the paper that your mother has passed away. Jane was a tough cookie. I loved it when she would smile and tell stories. . But I mostly appreciated her "tell it like it is" personality. It was an honor to for Always Best Care to have cared for her on the farm. .. blessings to her family!

Very sorry to read Of Jane's passing. I know she and my dad, Ted Turner, enjoyed many fun days together. It is part of life for the time to keep going and what was once young and vibrant to pass. Our family will be praying for you as you say good by and share memories of Jane.
