“ What a lady, she was a real spitfire and will be missed so very deeply. I have known Jane for less than a year yet I feel like I have always known her. She was a kind, smart and an awesome person. She was so proud of Scott and Tracy and the beautiful family they have raised. I will never forget how her eyes would light up every time the boys would come and see her and when they would call. And Hunter, it really made her happy that you would join us for wheel of fortune, it meant so much to her.

Farewell Jane my dear friend till we meet again! We will all try to be brave little soldiers.

My heartfelt condolences to the family.

Jane and I go way back. It started at New Hope Lutheran in Lakewood. A church where she and Milford were charter members. After Milford passed Jane and I and my kids would go to Perkins for breakfast after church. She always ordered the same meal and asked to have her bacon burned! Jane and other close friends would play bridge at least one night a week, and always at Jane's house. We had so much fun and our evenings were spent discussing politics and other local problems in between bridge hands. We all missed her when she went to live with Scott but knew they would give her so much love and care. She lost so many family members in a short amount of years. She needed love. Thank you for taking care of my dear friend.
