“ My grandmother, Lois Anundson, was best friends with Janet when they were growing up. She was telling stories about their childhood at dinner tonight. She recalls how they would go to the outhouse and swap dresses so they could each wear new dresses. She also remembers that they would get into trouble together- one time, they were yelling out the ten commandments and they got into trouble for that. She mentioned that she misses hearing from Janet and I thought I would go online and look her up. My condolences go to her family and I will let my grandma know that Janet went to be with the Lord.

“ I was so very sorry to see that Jan has died. I met Jan in 1980 when my family ran an Arts n Craft store at Crossroads Center. Jan worked at the earring shop in the mall and she and I became good friends. I left Crossroads to become an RN and over the years Jan and I remained friends and had many great conversations! She was one of the dearest women I've ever known and I loved her. I saw her several times when she was at Sartori Hospital. I will miss her, but I will always remember her. Please know that I will keep you all in my prayers. I know that she rests safely in the arms of our Lord.

*Bryan, Jaine & Carrie;
Bettie Lou and I send our heartfelt love and condolences in memory of your Mom. We knew your mom and Pastor Benson very well. I was always so proud of both of them. When I was teaching the Bethel Bible Series class (which is a 2 year study) they both attended every lesson for the 2 years. Pretty unusual for a pastor and his wife to do that. They were both great people and you have very precious memories of them. May God Bless each of you as you grieve the loss of such a loved one.*
