“ Dear Loving Family of Jean Ann,

Just knowing Jean Ann and her husband over the years at Bible Conferences, I wanted to express sincere sympathy in her sudden loss. I recall her having a ready smile. What a feat with her caring heart to be in nursing caring for others for 40 years. What a blessing she must have been to others those many years and then her own passing came so quickly. Now she is with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ seeing His face. What a privilege. May each of you be comforted in the many memories you each have.

*Warmly,
Charleen Studnicka

“ We only knew you for a very short time over Micah and Brooke’s wedding festivities but in that small amount of time you left a warm feeling of love and sassiness that we will always remember. Your love of family, adventure and The Grateful Dead will keep us smiling when we think of you. May you Rest In Peace with your favorite musician Jerry Garcia. Much love, Art and Trisch from Maryland.
