“ I was in Jean's "Psychology of Learning" class many years ago. She was such an inspiration to me - so professional. I was so excited about teaching. She has been an inspiration to thousands of future teachers across Iowa and our nation. She has greatly contributed to the changed lives of so many. Most recently I have been a part of her life as my own mother lived near Jean at New Aldaya. It was a special treat for me to see her again. God's grace to you. Donna Schmeidel

I was so surprised to hear of Jean's passing. I visited her as a member of the Connect and Care team from her church. She was always so pleased to have visitors. The last time I saw her she was lying on her bed. The other team member brought her pet rabbit. Jean loves that rabbit. He laid on her chest and she stroked him and talk to him in such a quiet gentle voice it was a beautiful picture.

Yes, Jean did love the visits from Basil (our little brown rabbit) - I have a wonderful photo of the two of them in my office! It has been a joy to visit her for several years with others from the church's Connect & Care ministry. Her quiet nature and tenderness towards Basil stole my heart! Two weeks ago, we had a wonderful visit and I am so thankful that she always received our "goodbye hugs". I will cherish the memories I have of this sweet lady. Jean Ann Gedlinske

JeanAnn was my 3 cousin. However, she was a cousin period since the family was small. She would come in to Glen Rock, Pa every Summer to go to beach with my Uncle Bud and his sister Aunt Mag. Then come in for Christmas to hear the Glen Rock Carolers. (history behind the Carolers). We would eat good when she came in Steak, Seafood etc. I still can hear her laugh.

When I was 14 she took me through Cementaries to look up family heritage. Then she was driving down Church st. and have me steer the car at 14. Now you got to know the hills of Church st. and narrow roads. By the way she was behind the steering wheel. Then when she came in she always brought a new game Uno---Skipbo--Rummicube etc. When I got married and had our first child she would send books in and state to read, read, read to Michelle. Today Michelle has her Masters in Medical Physicists. Ryan our second child is BS in Sports teaching or whatever. However, he lives in Va and is persuding to be a police officier.

I miss JeanAnn but I know she is in better place. She always talked about her friends in Iowa.

As I lost my Husband, Aunt Kate 2 days later, Aunt Mag June 5 ,15. Then Mother in law first week in Aug and Second week in Aug lost our Pastors wife who was my age 59. I miss all the good old times. Some day we who knows the Lord will be with all of them again.

Love you JeanAnn
