“ *Godspeed Aunt Jeanette.
We were neighbors for many years. Many special memories of laughs, favorite memories including a Honda, farm incidents, and celebrations come to mind.
On a serious side, I always remember when an adult made fun of me when I was young. You really went to bat for me in such a special way no one else but you could do. I remember thanking you in person and we laughed. I said thanks for going to bat for me; you made a home run!! You became Aunt Jeanette to me then. Our family ties go back a long way and we all appreciated all the trips to Colorado in recent years. Sometimes one feels so close to a person because they are so close to heart.
You, Uncle Jerry, Tara and Sara are close to heart and I thank you for that.*

*With heart felt sympathy, much respect and Love, David
