

Jim Henderson

November 19, 1935 - November 17, 2024

James “Jim” L. Henderson left his earthly home in Cedar Falls on November 17, 2024, and walked into the loving arms of Jesus Christ.

He was born November 19, 1935, in Avoca, IA, to James “Scottie” and Hazel “Ruth” Henderson. He graduated from the Avoca-Hancock School in 1953 and was married on December 21, 1957, to Patricia and they were blessed with 4 children. They were later divorced, and he married his second wife Carol on May 25, 1991.

He began work on the Rock Island Railroad in Avoca in 1953 and continued his career with the CSX Railroad in Richmond, VA until his retirement in 1995. Subsequent to his retirement he worked as a door keeper for the Virginia House of Delegates and as a starter at numerous golf courses in the Richmond area. Throughout his life, he was an avid bowler, golfer and fisherman spending as many hours as possible enjoying these hobbies during retirement.

Jim is survived and will be missed by his children, Kristy (David) Morford of Earlham, IA, Kelly (Ed) Petsche of Omaha, NE, Kandace (Randy) Meeker of Council Bluffs, IA, and Kyle (Wendy) Henderson of Cedar Falls, IA; his stepchildren, Beth (Danny) Worrell, Carla (Spencer) Dillard and Courtney (Scott) Headley-Jungers. He is also survived by 17 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife Carol, his parents, his siblings, Roberta, Denny and a brother who passed at birth; his stepson, Kin Headley; and an infant grandchild, Nicholas.

Graveside services will be held at a later date at his interment in Richmond, VA.
