

Jimmy Hoepner

Jimmy was born March 23, 1947, in Cherokee, Iowa, the son of Edward H. and Susan E. (Burch) Hoepner. He attended the Cedar Falls School System and then served his country in the United States Marine Corp for two tours during the Vietnam Conflict. Jimmy was united in marriage to Mary J. Freese on May 15, 1970, at the Reformed Church of Stout. The couple later divorced. He was employed by the Waterloo John Deere Tractor Works for 30 years retiring in 2002.

Jimmy is survived by his two children, Jimmy Jon Hoepner of Cedar Falls, and Becky Jane Hoepner of St. Charles, Missouri; a grandson, Blake James Hoepner also of St. Charles; two sisters, Dorothy (Glenn) Goodwin of Otumwa, Iowa, and Patty Hoepner of Waterloo; six brothers, Dick (Pat) Hoepner of Waterloo, Ronald Hoepner of Bloomington, MN., Jerry (Josephine) Hoepner of Waterloo, Roger Hoepner of Waterloo, Tom (Karen) Hoepner of New Hartford, IA., and Tim (Tara) Hoepner of Waterloo. Jimmy died Tuesday, March 23, 2004, at his home in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Preceding Jimmy in death were his father and grandparents.

Tribute Wall

BH

“ I remember many things about my dad, he taught me how to play sports and rode a three wheeler all the time, went fishing a lot. There are so many things, I wish he were here. I lived in Missouri for 10 years so I missed out on a lot, wish I could get those years back. But I still have great memories of him, I love and miss you Daddy, He called me Babies, I'd give anything to hear him call me that again. Love your daughter Becky Jane Hoepfner (BABIES)
ALLWAYS AND FOREVER.

Becky Jane Hoepfner - October 15, 2013 at 03:54 PM