“ So sorry for your loss. I met J.D. back in 1980 when he was building the new bridges thru Waterloo for the end of the I-380 coming up from Cedar Rapids. He was so proud of helping to build those bridges because he told me there was not one of them that went straight, they all curved on way or another! I enjoyed visiting with him at my bar and resturaunt called Z's out on Airline Highway. He was a good guy and someone I always enjoyed to be around. I think he helped me with projects at the bar, but I'm not sure what they were, it's been a long time ago. Dave White
