“ Mr. Shepherd was a constant presence in our neighborhood. We enjoyed lively conversations with him when we returned to visit. He always asked about all the De Groot kids, and we always shared memories about our childhood. We miss the neighborhood and the Shephard family. Sorry for your loss. The De Groot children

“ It was always a bright spot in the day when John stopped by UPS where I worked for many years. Always the best conversation! He was a friend of my dad as well (Russ McLaughlin) who was a good broker & spent business time at Martin Brothers and he so enjoyed the whole gang there. I'm sure John will be so missed by his family.

“ John was our longtime Veralta Drive neighbor; always smiling, always friendly, and always ready for a chat. We enjoyed John so much and will greatly miss him driving by in his Suburban, rolling down his window, leaning out, and greeting us with, “Hello, Sunshine!”
