I never met Joleen but saw her beautiful stained glass on Facebook as she was friends with my cousin Karolyn Hillen-Sorge. I bought one of her pieces as a gift for my sister-in-law who bought another piece later. She will always be sweetly remembered when we look at her beautiful work. God bless her!

Jo's Mom and Dad square danced with my parents. We also shared Rainbow together. She was an awesome friend and a beautiful person. I will cherish the stained glass cardinal that sits in our window. Neal and family, you have a jewel of an angel watching over you.

“ Joleen and I had gotten pretty close the last few years, taking a water acrostics class together and going to the monthly class lunches together. We had time to chat and get to know one another and Jo I am going to miss you so much! So loving and sincere! You fought the good fight! On a side note, Jo's mom was my 5th grade teacher, her Dad our mailman growing up on Melrose Drive and going to grade school and on with Neal. I will miss you so much, but know that your gardens in heaven will be beautiful!

“ Dear Jo, We were friends in high school but after graduation life took us in different directions. Then about six years ago I signed up for a Master Gardener class. I recognized you right away! Since then we shared our love of gardening and in the process we became friends. I am going to miss your friendship and your sweet spirit. Love~ Karolyn George “ Joleen was one of the most dependable and friendly people I've known in my lifetime. I'm thankful for her, Neil and family that she had some time in retirement before cancer took her too early. The family remains in my thoughts and prayers. Celebrating Joleen's life and her positive influence on everyone who had the opportunity to know her.

“ Just thinking of Joleen has always brought a smile to my face. I may never have kept in touch, but she has touched my heart since we were teenagers. She will always hold a special place in my heart, and whenever I see stained glass, it will remind me of her. Neal and family, I am sorry for your loss, Joleen was a true angel, and will always be with you.

“ Joleen was always a vivacious beautiful girl. I remember meeting her at a dance for Demolay boys and Rainbow girls. She was nice enough to dance with this nerdy 15 year old. I will never forget her. Neal is a lucky guy for having her in his life.
