“ Joyce and Phil were always gracious and welcoming friends. As a colleague Phil had a quiet but superb mind. An era has passed.

“ We were so saddened to see the passing of Joyce. Phil & Joyce were our next door neighbors on Rainbow Drive. Even after they moved away, we kept in touch. When are two children were born she handmade them teddy bears that they still have today. Just last summer Joyce stopped by our house to show us the SUV she was test driving. She will be greatly missed.

“ Joyce was a terrific friend. We met each other through her husband in ISU extension and my husband Dan was also. Another friend, Linda T. and I got together every so often until covid hit. We got together with them at national conventions around the country. She will be missed by all of us!! Dan and Mary Burkhart

I have so many memories of the Hufferd family. The girls babysitting, your mother's raspberry patch where she let me pick raspberries when they were out of town. Your parents let us use their house over Christmas eve when they were gone for our excess company. They went over to your house and the basement was full of water. We called them late Christmas eve and they were there early Christmas Day. Your mother was a kind, loving person. Let us know when you have the celebration later.

Diane, Sharon, Duane and families--I cherished my friendship and visits with your dear mom these last 3 years. I first got to know her sitting on the banks of the Mississippi River during a Ladies Day trip. I so enjoyed hearing of your parents' travels, life's experiences and you children. We had several visits since then, but I wish we had more. We talked of traveling together, but that did not happen. This past year has been hard. My life was blessed by her--such a sweet, genuine lady. Hope I can join you at the celebration of her life.
