*“ We are sorry to hear of the loss of your Mom.
Bill is Juanita's son. He remember's taking Juanita to visit your Mom when she was staying with us in Charles City. Sorry we were unable to attend the Service, just learned of the date and time this A.M.*

“ Please accept the condolences from the family of Doug & Karen Wenger, daughter of Juanita (Brody) Hollar. We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. She was a wonderful person. When Mom was alive I enjoyed going on visits with her to see your mom, Mom also shared the letters she had recieved from your mom. I'm sorry that we weren't able to be at the visitation or services as we just heard about it today.

“ Mr. Gery Deaver and family,

I had you for a professor at HCC. When I saw the picture of your mom in the paper I recognized your smile. I am sorry for your loss.

“ I wanted to share my condolences with your family. It is an unusual path that brings me to this message. As I grew up in K'ville my great aunt, Faye Hardin, was a member of First Methodist Church. She felt that the sun rose and set in Rev. Deaver and I often heard her speak of his wife and what a marvelous caring and giving woman she was.

I knew that the Deaver's would always have a special place in my aunt's heart--as you can tell my Auntie Faye was very special to me. I know she is pleased that I am sending this message to you.

But the story does not end there because I was privileged to teach their granddaughter, Kara, in the ALPHA program at Peet Jr. High. So to all of you, I hope that the wonderful memories of your mother and grandmother sustain you at this time. She was special to many and her impact lives on in all of you. Hi Kara! Jewell Hays “ Please accept the condolences from the family of Byron and Evelyn Surface. I am their daughter and an ordained minister in the Iowa Annual Conference. I believe my father served as Associate at Salem UMC in Cedar Rapids with Rev. Deaver when I was just an infant. My father passed away in 1997. My mother currently resides in Des Moines. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. With regret, I will be unable to be present for visitation or services. God's peace.
