“ I was always the younger cousin who kept getting in the way of the older kids when we were growing up. However, my very special memory of Judy was in Cedar Falls, Iowa. I was a junior at University of Northern Iowa, and away from home for the first time. Very homesick. Jim and Judy always welcomed me into their home, and really made a home away from home for me! I will always remember her for that.

“ After one of our many round tables, Judy and I, Sandy Harn and a few others decided to go play softball. We found a bat & ball and went to the ball diamond on Round St. We laughed so hard! However, a few of us were a bit stiff for a couple of days! I missed Judy greatly when she retired and will miss her even more now. We shared many of life's moments over the years and she always kept a watchful eye on me. May God bring comfort to her family knowing she is no longer in any pain.

Sincere condolences to the family of Judy Brown Graf. Inherent to her nature, she was always watching out for others. She looks the same in old age as she did in elementary school with me. She's very caring and loving. I can understand how she would have four awesome children. A lovely lady indeed. Peace be with you.
