

Julie Ann Boyer

June 15, 1965 - November 18, 2021

Shell Rock – Julie Ann Boyer, age 56, of Shell Rock died Thursday, November 18, 2021, at UnityPoint Allen Memorial Hospital in Waterloo.

She was born on June 15, 1965, in Waterloo, the daughter of Lyman “Skip” and Darla (Ripley) Mulford. She graduated from Janesville High School in the class of 1985. Julie worked as a mechanic and truck driver before taking time to raise her kids. On September 23, 2017, she was united in marriage to Frank Boyer in Cedar Falls. Julie likes to spend her time outdoors and with her family. She was a woman of many trades. She was a hero to her kids and always there for everyone she knew. She enjoyed breaking horses, cooking for the ones she loved, and being the best mother she could be. She loved going on motorcycle rides with her husband. If you knew Julie, you knew you were loved and never alone. No matter the circumstance, she'd help anyone she could. Julie will be more than missed and always remembered. Julie will live on through her kids and grandkids.

Julie is survived by: her husband, Frank Boyer of Shell Rock; two sons, Branden Dawdy and Kyle Squires both of Waverly; a daughter, Leanne (John Fisher) Hulbert of Cedar Falls; ten grandkids, Brody, Wyatt, Kylie and Jenessa Schultz, Leo Brodigan, Lane and Waylon Fisher, Lochlenn Wright, and Nickolas and Michael Neuenkirk; and a brother, Chad (Nicole) Davis of Kansas. She was preceded in death by: her parents, a sister, Corby Davis, and her grandma, Ida Mulford.

Visitation will be from 2-4pm Sunday, November 21, 2021, at Richardson

Funeral Service in Cedar Falls. Memorials may be directed to the family.
