“ No heart breaks alone for God is always near. When a prayer is whispered God is always there to hear. When sorrow's overwhelming, He comforts tenderly. A single tear never falls that he does not hear. (Psalms 65:2) Sorry for your loss.

“ I'm not sure what to write as I'm in disbelief. Even tho we lost touch, I thought about Julie often and wondered where life had taken her. I am so blessed that I was able to be her friend throughout high school and on, Her push button New Yorker!!!! Fond memories of being at the farm on Fridays, helping her finish up milking so we could go do something. Her work always came first! But she never thought of it as work, she made it fun. Saturdays, fixing this or that, then saddling up the horses for a walk into the woods. Little Jessica and I loved being out there with you all. I know she had a very strong faith, and shared that with many. She will be missed. My sympathies to you all.

“ I have many fond memories of Julie. Connie and I were the best of friends and I spent many weekends and sometimes weekdays staying at the Myers' house. She was a good "Big Sister" as I didn't have any of my own and she was one of the hardest working woman I have ever known. My condolences to her son Daniel, Daddy Max, Connie and Kim.

“ I am sending my heartfelt love and sadness in our family loss of Julie. She was such a sweet Kimberley cousin and will be greatly missed. When she shared with me her personal decision to trust Jesus Christ as her Savior I was so thrilled. I know she is with the Lord now and is totally well and free from sickness. Daniel, your mother loved you so very much. Live your life in the way that will make her proud.

Thoughts and prayers to Uncle Max, Kim and Connie, too.

“ My sincere condolences to Daniel and the rest of the family. I didn't have a whole lot of one-on-one interaction with Julie, but what I did see of her showed intense love and caring for Daniel at all times. I'm sure she will be greatly missed. Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Julie was probably the most humble person I have ever met. I just loved our conversations. Time would fly when we would talk, she was so personable and loving. Through her struggles she always served an ever-faithful God. How encouraging she was! I will never forget Julie Williams. I am a better person because of her friendship to me.
