“ *My deepest sympathy to all of you in the loss of your mom. I knew Kathy only slightly years ago when Nancy and Sherry were close friends. I am so grateful that we had time to get to know each other over the past few years. Such a brave lovely lady. We knew your Mom and your family through attending St. Patrick's, Karla graduated with our daughter (Rhonda Ludwig Hauser) and horses...we go back a lot of years...missed not visiting with your Mom after mass...when her eyes became a bigger challenge she didn't attend mass... Your Mom had a big smile and heart...I knew after Francis past she wasn't at her home...remembering how much she loved all of you and family memories will share great comfort to all! Blessings to all! Sally and Darrell Ludwig

I am very sad to hear this news. Your Mom was one of the nicest and caring persons I have every had the privilege of meeting. Such a wonderful lady with a great sense of humor. I truly enjoyed working with Kathy at the Courier, we had so much fun sharing experiences. Lots of laughs.
