I remember their wedding day so well. It was so lovely, and Kathy was such a beautiful bride. The reception was held at the venue where my father proposed marriage to my mother, so it had even more special significance. I so wish they could have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary together.

Sending my love and deepest sympathy to Uncle Jack, Laura, Kevin, and other immediate family. I will forever remember Kathy for her beautiful smile, kind heart, and sweet disposition. Treasure the beautiful memories, as the thoughts of the ravishing disease effects of Alzheimer's fade away. Remember the happy times, those are the moments to be treasured.
