“ I have known Kent for the last 8 years. We worked together for a few years and stayed in touch ever since. He was a kind and giving friend who tried to help my son with his addiction problems. He knew what he was talking about too. Last time I saw him I knew he was going through a tough time and lost contact with him for a couple months. Never thought that would be the last time I would see him. He was a good friend and I will miss him.

“ No heart breaks alone for God is always near. When a prayer is whispered God is always there to hear. When sorrow's overwhelming, He comforts tenderly. A single tear never falls that he does not hear.(Psalms 65:2) Sorry for your loss.

“ *May God Almighty of Tender Mercies Comfort the Hansen family (2 Cor. 1:3,4).
When the last Enemy strikes grief maybe great And make the Heart yearn for Comfort,
God Almighty of Tender Mercies gives HOPE And PROMISE, All Those in the Memorial tombs will hear His voice And COME OUT,
He will wipe OUT every tear from their eyes And Death will be NO MORE, God Almighty HOPE And PROMISE IS SOON TO BE ATTAIN. May these Thoughts be of some Comfort.*

“ I love you dad. Your gone much too soon. There is much we havent gotten to do together and i hope we can pick up were we left off when we meet again someday. My Dad was alot like me. We both like to travel and we are both just a couple of big kids. We liked to have fun. I remember you were gonna teach me how to build a transmission for my bike. He worked the printing press most of his life and he really enjoyed that. He always talked about his memories as a kid growing up in Iowa. He missed living up here and he said he mostly missed the seasons and the wilderness. He was gonna come back north someday and we were going to live together. I know he is with me now. I love you dad. Im sorry and i know youll always be with me. Ill never forget the twinkle in your eyes. And ill miss all the times we prayed together. Dad loved to pray with me. I miss cooking for you and how much you would enjoy my cooking. I always thought i would be taking care of you someday and thats what i always wanted. But your safe now dad. I miss you. And love you forever.
