“ I was a student in 1964 of Alan Mass, Larry's younger brother. Little did I know that someday I would share membership at First United Methodist of Cedar Falls with Larry and Mary where we participated in many functions. Larry always brought humor and excitement to the group and often shared common sense to the discussions. Some of you will recall the Summer Tuesday evening Cedar Falls band concert where Larry was tricked into trying on a red sports coat with snowmen, Deere, and Christmas trees printed all over it. As always he was a good sport to play along with the prank in front of the crowd.
