“ To all of Vern’s family,
I’m sorry you must endure the loss of Vern.
I’ve got many fond memories of him since my Dad introduced us in the 1960s. One of most memorable was when he and I drove a new Jeep,
towing another, from Waterloo to deliver to Downey, California, averaging 45 miles an hour.
That trip provided a lot of time to “visit” and we became good friends thereafter. I really enjoyed his enthusiasm and business sense. He became an early mentor and I will never forget him.
I send your family my heartfelt sympathy and prayers for support.
God bless and give you Strength. Sincerely, Kevan Cortright
