“ Chris was one of the hardest workers, good father to all his kids. Trying to always do the right thing. He also was a great husband to Lisa. Scott and I had so much fun camping and fishing for many years with him. He will be greatly missed by many people, especially me and Scott. Love you much Rademacker

“ I have so many memories of Chris, from riding on the back of his bicycle as he delivered newspapers in Sioux City, to riding in his Jeep... "Jeepin" all the dirt roads and sand pits around Waterloo with bandanas tied around our heads, watching pigeons return from races or just the tumblers and rollers. He was only 7 years old when I was born so I grew up with him. He most likely (...pffft...DEFINITELY) provided me my first adult beverage and cigarette! Some years we were close and others we were separated by distance or circumstances. We lived in the same house several times throughout the years....yesterday was the first time I ever saw him weak in any way and even then he was strong. Best damn uncle I've ever had. I love you Chris. R.I.P.
