“ Lillian was my mother. She was one of the most wonderful people I ever knew. Some words I would use to describe her are: intelligent, loving, caring, devoted, religious, stubborn, hard-working, simple, opinionated, humble, independent, determined. The more I live without her, the more I see her in myself.
