I knew Lillian from her time living at Mallard Point in CF. She was so polite & caring to me always! We had some great visits too, we could talk like we were related, yet we were not. To her family -she was a beautiful part of Mallard Points friends, I am thankful to have known her too for many of those years too....

One memory of her (Lillian's) time at Mallard Point, when she was sitting on the chair outside of her apt. I said to her "You look so nice just sitting there for a young lady!" Lillian smiled so much & said "Thank you that means so much to me for being 96 1/2 years old!" She was a great gal always!
