“ Dear Mert, Tammy, Bill and Teresa,
So very sorry to read abt your Mom. Made me feel especially sad that we've lost touch over the yrs. I always loved Linda...Super sweet! I sent my Mom, Nancy the notice. She was heartbroken to hear of the news. She's in AL visiting my Uncles. But I know she would want me say something. Let your treasured memories of your Mom help you forge through these difficult days ahead. Plz know I have you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Merton and family, we are sorry to read about the passing of Linda. I have memories of her at 1st Baptist, Cedar Falls, as you came to S.S. and church. It was always good to see you in recent years while shopping. May the Lord give you His comfort and peace during the coming days. Alice & Gene Janssen

So sorry to hear of Linda's passing. I remember working with her at The Cedar Falls Lutheran Home. She was always pleasant, helpful and a pleasure to work with. I always wondered how she was doing since she left there. My deepest condolences to the family.
