

Louise Durham

March 7, 1930 - February 16, 2010

Louise H. Durham (1930-2010)

CEDAR FALLS- Louise H. Durham, 79, of Cedar Falls, died Tuesday, February 16, 2010 at Allen Memorial Hospital.

She was born March 7, 1930 in Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Charles M. and V. Fay (Reese) Hackenberg. She married James L. Haupt in 1952 in Bellefonte, and they later divorced. She married Dr. Norris M. Durham in Detroit, Michigan in 1971.

She graduated from Bellefonte High School in 1946 and Lock Haven University in 1950. She taught elementary school in State College, PA, for fifteen years, and was then Executive Secretary with Schreiber Cheese Co. in Green Bay, WI, for four years. She then was employed with the Black Hawk County Health Department for fifteen years, as Executive Secretary/Manager of the Home Care Aide Program, retiring in 1995.

Survivors include her husband, Norris, of Cedar Falls; two nephews, Donald J. (Selena Lingle) Hackenberg of Milesburg, PA, and Dennis A. (Linda) Hackenberg of Julian, PA; a niece, Diane M. (Terry) Gates of Runville, PA; a granddaughter, Riki L. (Kevin) Duck of Loganton, PA; a great-grandson, Bryton W. Duck; and a brother, Donald R. (Kathryn) Hackenberg of Milesburg, PA.

Friends may call from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday at Richardson Funeral Home. Additional services will take place in Milesburg, Pennsylvania, with burial in Advent Cemetery, Milesburg.

Tribute Wall

“ Dr. Durham, I am so deeply saddened to hear about Louise. She was such a beautiful person both inside and out and will be missed by all. You both know how much you mean to me and how much my heart aches for you. I pray for much peace and strength to help you get through this difficult time. I love you both! Tracie Nicholson

February 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ On behalf of the staff of Maple Lanes and Valley Park Lanes, our sympathy goes out to you Norris. Lousie was a beautiful woman.

February 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM