

Mae Roskamp

November 25, 2009

Mae Helena Roskamp, 88, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, died on Nov 25, 2009, at Memorial Hospital in Chattanooga, Tennessee, after a short battle with cancer.

She was born February 9, 1921, in Hopkinton, Iowa, daughter of Agnes Jane Calderwood Kenny and Alexander Kenny. Mrs. Roskamp graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in English. Her teaching vocation began in a one-room rural school; subsequently, she taught at East High School in Waterloo, Iowa, for several years. On September 5, 1950, she married Harold P. Roskamp.

In addition to her priorities as a wife and mother, Mrs. Roskamp was an active church member of Covenant Orthodox Presbyterian Church in Cedar Falls. She was noted for her hospitality, graciousness, and generosity. She had an unwavering faith in Jesus Christ, and she looked forward to her passing with peace and anticipation of being in His presence.

Survivors include two daughters and one son: Jane (Stephen) Barnett, John (Jinhi) Roskamp, and Sarah (David) Miller, 11 grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and sister-in-law, Florence Flanagan.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold, two brothers, Wilfred and Alexander Kenny, and sister, Sade Kirby.

Visitation will be 4 to 7 Friday at Richardson Funeral Home at 615 Main Street, in Cedar Falls. The funeral will be on 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Covenant Orthodox Presbyterian Church at 2009 Crescent Drive, in Cedar Falls, followed by the burial at Cedar Valley Memorial Gardens in Cedar Falls.

Memorials may be directed to Cono Christian School, 3269 Quasqueton Avenue, Walker, Iowa 52352.
