“ We were so sorry to hear of Mardella's passing but so thankful we got to spend some time with her on Thanksgiving. She will be making heavenly music at that great jam session up yonder. Our hearts go out to the entire Youngblood family. We wish we could be there to celebrate her life with you on Saturday. Lester and Carole

“ Our condolences to Mardella's family in this time of sorrow. Some of my best memories were at the family reunions and Mardella would bring her guitar along with the words of the songs on paper so we all could sing along. Like Grandma Burggraf she like buying clothes at garage sales, second hand stores and Good Will, add to them or change them in some way to fit her. She always had a beautiful smile and a great sense of humor.

A Great Niece.

“ Once you met Mardella, you never forgot her. She was a tiny lady, but no one dared to tell her that! I always enjoyed playing at the Youngblood's because it was 'out in the country', and the end of the boundary line that the Simpson kids were allowed to go when we had to ride our bikes. I took guitar lessons from Mardella one summer and we both agreed that I didn't have a musical bone in my body. She sure did, though. The whole family was talented.

So to the Youngblood kids and their families, please accept the prayers and condolences from the Simpson kids. We had some fun times with your Mom. She will be as close to you as a thought-right there next to your heart.

Much love and respect from Barb, Marge and Mike.
