“ I love you Aunt Marge. I remember many summer sleep-overs I shared with you and Uncle Dick when I was younger. Although the one you recalled foremost, was the hot summer trip to Arizona with Barry and I in your station wagon. You would say "and we had No Air either"! Then we would laugh together. I was so blessed that you chose me to be your goddaughter. For many years you made sure we had a summer "Schilling Family Reunion" and for that, I'm truly thankful. Memories of you will always be in my heart.
