“ I will always cherish the memory of visiting her at the nursing home and when I walked in the door, by myself, she said "Oh Tracy". This was at a time when she was starting to not remember people so well. Grandma, I love you!

“ Meriel and Family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I am sorry for you loss and hope it has helped to have family time and share your memories of your mother together.

Thinking of you today as you pay tribute to your mother.
