“ I send my deepest condolences, thoughts and prayers to all at this difficult time.

My fondest memories as a child were when my mom (Lois ) used to take us to Marge's house to visit, there was always lots of laughter and fun to share.

On occasions, we would go camping - Mom and Marge loved to camp and picnic together.

Marge had such a free spirit with a great sense of humor that people loved to be around.

Marge will be truly missed and I am sorry I wasn't able to contact her and the rest of the family at a more pleasant time.

“ Marge was always called my aunt. But later when I met her again after yes of absence I found she was my cousin along with Marlene ... We buried her sister together in Santa Cruz calif and have been trying to find her again ever since... My heart is broken right now as I was hoping to see her again alive...when I was young she was like another mother to me and I will love her until I'm dead!! Then I hope to see her again forever. Rita and Jamey my condolences to you and your family. Love Jerry thompson

“ Thoughts and Prayers go out to the family. I remember meeting Marg years ago when she came to visit my mother which is also her Aunt. I remember Marg being so loving and full of laughs. She was a good person inside and out. Even tho it's been years since i have spoken or seen her I will always cherish and feel very grateful to have known her.

“ Marge was a woman who touched many lives and was loved by all. It is difficult to fully express the gratitude that is felt as she nurtured family members, grandchildren, and friends. Most importantly, however, she will be remembered for her amazing strength, loyalty, and enabling ability in making a profound difference and lasting imprint on our hearts. Although she will be greatly missed, she will never be forgotten. . . . Aunt Kathy to Ryan, Tasha & Nick Eastman
