“ Rick, I love you and miss you soooo very much! I just can't believe you are not with us anymore. Christmas wasn't the same without you. I will miss your laughter, your advice, you cooking on the grill, everything! Well except the chicken you grilled a little to long but I ate it. Now your with mom and uncle fudd and probably having a party. Rest in peace my little brother, you left us too soon, and I wish I could give you a big hug and tell you I love you.

“ Hung around with Rick in and after high school, but not as much in the last several years. Always found him to be a caring, loving, overall great guy. Didn't know too many of his family, except Shelli. It seemed like they shared a special bond. When I think of Rick in the future, I'll always remember his smile, his calm demeanor and his friendliness. One of the nicest guys you could ever meet. Will miss you, Rick.

“ Rick was a special guy with a positive word, a good laugh, and a friend to all. He was always interested in everyone else and wanted to make people feel special. He will be missed - especially his laugh and the twinkle in his eye for fun. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. We know that Rick is in a better place and in time we will meet with him again. My God grant you peace and time allow you to remember the many good times you shared with Rick. We will miss our friend but we will never forget how he touch our lives. Peace to our friend.

“ I met Rick when I moved to Cedar Falls in second grade. He was my first friend there. We played a lot of golf at Washington park as children and played every time I came back for our legendary fishing trips. Always had a smile for me and that damn laugh. I already miss that laugh. Just a great friend.
