“ To my friend Marlyn: I'm glad you said it's ok to cry. That has come in handy in the last few days. What I wouldn't give to pull up a chair, sit and talk awhile; share a joke and see your smile.
Here's to a man with many talents, lead by a kind heart, who always put the wants and desires of others ahead of his own. Enjoy you're reward, we will keep the memories alive down here. Ed Wellmann

“ Please accept our sincere condolences. May the words quoted from this song bring you a measure of comfort as it did for us.
”If a man or woman should die, can they live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand ”(Job 14:13-15)

“ We were deeply saddened to hear of Haus's passing. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. Marlyn touched the hearts of so many and a damn good friend to all. His hands not only worked miracles with metal, but were always open to give what he could, to whomever was in need. May we all take comfort in knowing that Haus wasn't hesitant in jumping on the bus, when God sent it. May he rest in peace and may God bless. Bob, Pat Biersner and Family
