“ Growing up in the fifties and early sixties, Marsha was a playmate when I lived on Bluff St. I remember a little building we used as a fort/clubhouse that John always chased us out off. Then we moved and did not see her for many years then turned out she was in Sartorial having a baby the same time my wife was probably 25-30 years ago, never saw her again. Many early childhood memories of the McGiverns. My sympathy to the family.
