“ Our deepest sympathy to Martha's family. We looked forward to Martha's smiling face when driving First UMC bus to pick her up for Sunday worship. Her son, Jim, was always with her to help and we enjoyed getting to know them both. What a kind and sweet soul.

“ Our sincere sympathy and thoughtful prayer to the family and friends of Martha. As back door neighbors for over 30 years we have a lot of wonderful memories. Martha was always available with cookies when the neighborhood boys were having a great time in the yards.

Sincerely, Dave and Bette Lewis and the Lewis boys - Alan, Paul, Neil and Dale.

Our sympathy and prayers to the family of Martha Anderson. We met Martha and her husband through their son John. The Anderson's came to high school baseball games in which our sons, Aaron and Seth played. Martha invited us to dinner several times when she was in the home on Grove Street. We met you Steven and Jim when we attended the funeral of your brother John. Both Martha and John were jewels.
