“ I wish God's comfort and blessing all over you and your family! I don't remember a time when Marvin did not have a smile on his face, or when he was not excited to talk about his family and wrestling. He was proud of the business his sons ran, and always had more activities and energy than the Energizer bunny - whether it was driving his antique tractors, or mowing and plowing snow. He will be missed, but we will see him again strolling the streets of gold!
