“ Linda and family,

I was very saddened to read of Marv's passing last Tuesday. I remember visiting with him for a few minutes the last time he was in getting the van serviced. I always enjoyed him and will miss seeing and visiting with him. Peace be to all of you.

“ Please accept our sincere condolences. May the words quoted from this song bring you a measure of comfort as it did for us.

"If a man or woman should die, can they live again?

Hear the promise God has made:

He will call; The dead will answer.

They shall live at his command.

For he will have a longing

For the work of his own hand.

So have faith, and do not wonder,

For our God can make us stand.

And we shall live forever,

As the work of his own hand "(Job 14:13-15)

“ Dear Marjery, June and I are so sorry to hear of Marv's passing. We have a lot of customers, but he and you are among the best. You made us feel like friends. It was always a pleasure to work with you. If there's anything we can do to help going forward, just let us know. I always like to think that no one is really gone until forgotten. In that way, Marv will be with us for a very long time.
Your friends, Mark and June Birdnow and all the staff at the Birdnow Dealerships.
